

Bay County Division on Aging Hampton Township Senior Activity Center

We are so grateful to work with the Hampton Township staff and elected officials along with the participates who gather at the Senior Activity Center. We have planned a special day to show our appreciation and open our facility to those who would like to know more about the advances and benefits of being involved. Come and learn how you can make us a part of your routine. Aging well, health benefits, social engagements and delicious food are all in store for you. Lunch available as follows. Looking forward to meeting you or for all our loyal friends to say Thanks....
